

Television Service

Each apartment at Current Midtown is equipped with cable TV jacks in each room that can be used for either complimentary (included) or premium (available for a fee) TV service. Information about how to use the two types of TV service available in your apartment is provided below.

Complimentary TV Service

As a courtesy, TV networks from the Williamsburg area are provided to your cable TV jacks in HD (high definition). These channels are provided in a free, unencrypted digital cable format called "Clear QAM", which delivers high-quality HDTV stations directly to your television without the need for a set top box. In order to connect to your Complimentary TV service, your television must include a digital QAM tuner. Almost all TVs produced in 2006 or later include a QAM tuner, so getting connected is easy:

1. Connect Cable to TV. Connect a standard coaxial TV cable from the wall outlet to the coaxial input on your TV.
2. Select "TV" as your source. Make sure your television is in "TV" mode ready to tune TV stations (e.g. not connected to an external input such as a game console) This can normally be done by pressing the "input" or "source" button until "TV" appears on your screen. If your television is not in this mode, the right menu options for the steps below may not appear.
3. Perform a channel-scan. This step involves using the on-screen menus on your TV. Although on-screen menus vary by TV brand, the following steps are typically found under the menu heading "Setup", "Antenna", or similar. Refer to your TV manual for further detail if necessary, then:
 - a. Make sure the antenna / tuner is set for "Cable" or "CATV", NOT "Air" or "Antenna". This tells your TV you plan to receive signals from a digital cable service, not an over-the-air antenna.
 - b. Select automatic "channel scan", "channel search", or "auto-program" (depending on TV brand). This step allows the TV to search for and memorize the channels available in your apartment.
4. Tune Channels using your TV remote. The channel search may take several minutes depending on the TV. Once complete, you will be able to tune television stations directly using the remote control that was supplied with your TV.

After performing these steps, you will be able to receive the following channels on your TV:

| CHANNEL | No. |
|----------------|------------|
| WVEC ABC | 11 |
| WTKR CBS | 16 |
| WAVY NBC | 19 |
| WGNT CW | 20 |
| WVBT FOX | 21 |
| WUND PBS | 29 |
| WHRO PBS | 31 |
| WPXV ION | 32 |
| WTVZ MNT | 33 |

Premium TV Service

A full range of TV programming from DISH Network is available from IQ Machines. If you choose to receive this premium programming, there is no need to worry about installing dish antennas - the content is already available in your unit using the same wall jacks that provide Complimentary TV service. Once you have selected your premium programming, IQ Machines will arrange for the delivery of Dish Network set top boxes that will be used to access premium TV service in your apartment. The following pages provide an overview of the programming, equipment and pricing associated with the premium TV service available at Current Midtown. If you are interested in purchasing premium TV service, please contact IQ Machines at support@iqmachines.com, and an agent can help to process your order and answer any questions you might have.

Support

The Complimentary TV service at Current Midtown was designed to provide free HD programming without the need for additional equipment. Most TVs built in 2006 or later are directly compatible. However, if you own a TV that is not compatible, you will not be able to receive TV programming without upgrading your equipment. In this case, there are several options:

- Purchase an External QAM Tuner – Like a cable box, this device sits next to your TV to decode the signals your TV cannot, and converts them to a format your TV can accept. Visit iqmachines.com for additional information about external QAM tuners.
- Purchase a new TV – If your television is older and you are considering purchasing a new one anyway, this may be the best answer. Before purchasing, make certain the model you select includes a QAM Tuner.
- Premium Service – If you have an interest in premium TV content, this is likely your best option. The set top boxes that are used to deliver premium TV service from Dish Network are compatible with nearly all TVs.
